ARTICLE III

Section 1. Annual Meetings. there shall be an annual meeting on the second Thursday of May of each year for the election of Directors and officers and for receiving the annual reports of the officers, directors, and committees, and the transaction of other business. Notice of the meeting, signed by the Secretary, shall be mailed to the last recorded address of each member at least five (5) days prior to the meeting and shall state its time and place.

Section 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings shall be called by the Board of Directors at its discretion.

Section 3. Place of Meeting. Meetings of the members shall be held at such place designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Quorum. The presence in person or by proxy of 15% of the members of the corporation entitled to vote shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; however, a quorum shall not include Non-Resident members absent from the meeting nor Life Members absent from the meeting and not residents of the State of Wisconsin.

Section 5. Order of Business The order of business shall be governed by Robert's Rules of Order.

ARTICLE IV

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. General Powers. The property, affairs, and business of the corporation shall be managed by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Number and Term of Office. The Board of Directors shall consist of twelve (12) persons. They shall be: a Chairman, the five (5) officers of the corporation, and six elected directors. All directors and officers shall be elected by the members from the Regular Members and the Life Members and shall hold office until their successors are elected. The term of office shall be two (2) years. At the expiration of any term, any director may be re-elected. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be the Immediate Past President of the Corporation and, if absent, the next Immediate Past President. The Chairman shall have no voting rights except in the case of a tie vote among the Directors.

Section 3. Organization. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, the Chairman shall preside, and, if absent, the President, and in the absence of the President, the first Vice-President.

Section 4. Resignation and Removal Any director of the corporation may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Secretary of the corporation. Such resignation shall take effect at the date of the receipt of such notice, or at any later time specified therein. The acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Any one or more of the Directors may be removed either with or without cause at any time, by vote of a quorum of the club members present at any special meeting called for that purpose.

Section 5. Place of Meeting. The meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such place as shall be designated in the notice of meeting thereof.

Section 6. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held immediately succeeding the annual election by the membership, with the power to adjourn and re-adjourn.

Section 7. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be had upon written demand of two (2) directors addressed to the President, a Vice-President, or Secretary of the corporation, stating the purpose or object thereof. Notice of such meeting shall be made by any means of communication to each director at least two (2) days before the date on which such meeting is to be held. Every such notice shall state the time, place, and purpose of the meeting. No business other than that so stated in the notice shall be transacted at said meeting without the consent of a majority of all the members of the Board of Directors.

Section 8. Quorum and Manner of Acting. A majority of the Directors in office at the time of any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at such meeting. The act of a majority of the Directors present at any such meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors. In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the Directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum be had. The Directors present at a duly called meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough Directors to leave less than a quorum. Notice of any adjourned meeting need not be given. In accordance with Section 181.72, Wis. Stats., any action which might be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if done in writing signed by all of the Directors.

Section 9. Absence. Should any member of the Board of Directors be absent from three (3) consecutive meetings of the Board without sending a communication to the President or Secretary stating the reasons for so doing, and if such excuse should not be accepted by the members of the Board, such seat on the Board may be declared vacant, and the President may forthwith proceed to fill the vacancy. The person so chosen shall hold office until the next annual meeting, or until a successor shall have been chosen at a special meeting of the members.

Section 10. Notice of Meeting - Waiver. Notice shall be given to each Director of the time and place of each meeting of the Board, but any Director may in writing either before or after the meeting waive notice thereof; and without notice, any Director, by attendance at such meeting, shall be deemed to have waived notice, and any meeting of the Board of Directors shall be a legal meeting without any notice thereof having been given if all the members of the Board of Directors shall be present thereat.
